J.K. came (if known):
Freetown

Francis's father died after an illness before the war. During the war Francis lost track of his mother, sister and brother. He was living in Freetown with Auntie Musu, a grown friend. She was a refugee from Liberia and eventually left Sierra Leone to go to Canada as a refugee. When Musu had gone to the consulate to get her papers, she met Kayla and heard of JCC. She got the address for JCC and took it to Francis. Francis then made his way to Bo and to JCC. Francis was most interested in attending school. He had no education papers, so this year he started in class 6 at JCC. He is an excellent student and works hard on projects at the orphanage. Francis loves the Lord and has a desire to be a pastor.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." Matthew 19:14
