Joseph's parents were killed during the war. Joseph ran off to the bush and eventually met back up with a grandmother. He was separated from her as they attempted to avoid the rebel violence. Eventually Joseph found himself living on the streets and was brought to JCC. Joseph is an intelligent young man. He is very mature and has had many challenging experiences. At one time he went to live in his village because of obedience issues at JCC. Since that time he has returned to the orphanage and is working hard to be obedient to the staff and the Lord. Joseph has a desire to serve the Lord in full time ministry someday.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." Matthew 19:14
